

THE COCONINO SUN.

PERSONAL.

J. F. Daggs returned Monday from Phoenix.

James Vanderen is in the Verde Valley this week.

W. A. Mayflower has been ill with la grippe this week.

H. R. Davis is slowly recovering from his recent illness.

Miss Eva Dutton is the new assistant of Postmaster Coalter.

F. C. Reid returned Tuesday from a trip to southern Arizona.

E. E. Ellinwood went to Holbrook Thursday on legal business.

Mrs. R. B. Burns, of Williams was a visitor to Flagstaff Wednesday.

Miss Lillian Beal left Sunday for a four weeks' visit to Los Angeles.

Ashton Nebeker is in from Tuba City this week for the first time this year.

F. C. Games, who has been spending the winter in Phoenix returned Tuesday.

John A. Cotton, of Albuquerque, was registered at the Red Bank hotel yesterday.

E. R. Bayless returned Thursday from a trip to his former home in Arkansas.

E. M. Doe returned Tuesday from a trip to St. Louis on important legal business.

G. L. Brook, live stock agent for the Santa Fe, was in town yesterday on business.

C. E. Howard, manager of the Howard Sheep Company, came in from Williams Thursday.

Hugh Anderson returned Wednesday from Verde Valley, where he has been during the winter.

The Senate has confirmed the appointment of J. C. Martin to be receiver of public monies at Prescott.

Sheriff R. H. Cameron, who has been in the southern part of the Territory for the past week, returned yesterday.

J. R. Kilpatrick is in Galveston, Tex. He is still an invalid, and he may go to Florida for the benefit of that climate.

J. T. Pearce, the special agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, left for Kingman Thursday on a business trip.

J. T. McGovern left Tuesday for Prescott, where he will assist the United Irish Societies of Arizona in an entertainment on St. Patrick's day.

J. W. Cart, the sheepman, spent several days here during the week on his way to Winslow from Phoenix, where he had been spending the winter.

Chas. Canall, the electrician and W. U. telegraph line repairer, politician and editor of the snake department of THE SUN, visited Winslow yesterday.

Miss Emma Ingraham left Thursday for her home in Iowa. Miss Ingraham is a niece of T. J. Coalter, and during her stay here was assistant in the post-office.

W. H. Norman has been in New Orleans, La., since January 18 for the benefit of his health. His health is much improved, and he will leave that city in a few days.

B. R. Coffin was a passenger on No. 1 yesterday on his way to Needles. Ben is in the employ of the Santa Fe Pacific at Albuquerque, and has been transferred to Needles. He will stop over until Tuesday, visiting relatives here.

J. P. McGovern, a bright and intelligent young man of Flagstaff, came in on last evening's train, and will remain in Prescott for some time. He has quite a reputation as an amateur actor, and will assist in the entertainment to be given here next week under the auspices of the Catholic Knights.—Journal-Miner.